

2nd Javea Workshop on Social and Evolutionary Psychology, June 28th - July 1st 2018

2nd Javea Workshop on Social and Evolutionary Psychology.

Evolutionary and Social Psychology: Confrontation, Interaction and Integration

June 28th – July 1st , 2018

Location: Hotel Costamar, Calle de Caleta 4, 03730 Javea (Puerto)

tel. (0034)965790644 www.hotelcostamar.eu

Scientific committee:

Douglas T. Kenrick, Arizona State University, Tempe AZ, USA

Martie Haselton, University of California, Los Angeles CA, USA

Thomas V. Pollet, Northumbrian University, Newcastle, UK

José Maria Peiro, Universidad de Valencia, Valencia, Spain

Abraham P. Buunk, University of Groningen, Groningen, The Netherlands

Local organization:

APBuunk Advies, Abraham P. Buunk, a.p.buunk@rug.nl

Program

Thursday June 28: Arrival

Welcome dinner from 20.30 hrs in: Restaurant Calima, Av. Marina Española, 14, 03730 Javea (Puerto) Kitchen is open till 11.00 pm.

Tel. (034)965794821, www.restaurante-calima.com

The restaurant is just five minutes away from the hotel. Walk down to the seaside, turn right and walk along the pedestrian boulevard until you reach it.

Friday June 29

Session 1 Basic issues

10.00 – 10.35 hrs Self-actualization, meaning in life, and evolved fundamental motives - Douglas Kenrick, Arizona State University, Tempe AZ, USA

10.35 – 11.10 hrs The activities of the immune system and present-focused decision-making – Sarah Hill, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth TX, USA

11.10 – 11.25 hrs Coffee break

11.25 – 12.00 hrs The archetypes of social life - Vaughn Becker, Arizona State University, Mesa AZ, USA

12.00 – 12.35 hrs The Good, the Bad and the Ugly: A tour around evolutionary social psychology – Thomas Pollet, Northumbrian University, Newcastle, UK

12.35 – 13.00 hrs The impact of a rival on jealousy at work – Rosario Zurriaga, Universidad de Valencia, Valencia, Spain

13.00 – 15.00 hrs Lunch and spare time on your own

Session 2 Mating

15.00 – 15.35 hrs Some rivals evoke more jealousy than others: An evolutionary social psychological perspective - Karlijn Massar, Maastricht University, Maastricht, The Netherlands

15.35 – 16.10 hrs Mate choice and jealousy in transgender people - Ines Aristegui, Universidad de Palermo, Buenos Aires, Argentina

16.10 – 16.25 hrs Tea break

16.25 – 16.50 hrs Healthy teeth as a signal for quality of a mate – Yvonne Buunk-Werkhoven, SPOH ARTS – International Oral Health Psychology, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

16.50 – 17.15 hrs Mating-related attentional changes during the menstrual cycle - Ferran Suay i Lerma, Universidad de Valencia, Valencia, Spain

18.45 – 20.00 hrs Guided tour through the historical centre (casco antiguo) of Javea

20.00 hrs dinner in: Restaurant Embruix, Carrer Major 17, 03730 Javea (Casco antiguo)

Tel. (0034)966462073 www.embruix.es

Going on foot is possible, will take about 20 minutes, but we have enough cars to accommodate all participants.

Saturday June 30

Session 3 Social behavior and cooperation

10.00 – 10.35 hrs Fitness interdependence and the study of human cooperation: Bridging evolutionary and social approaches through computational modeling, fieldwork and empirical psychology- Athena Aktipis, Arizona State University, Phoenix AZ, USA

10.35 – 11.10 hrs How do we keep our friends? Friendship jealousy as negative emotion for positive ends – Jaimie Arona Krems, Arizona State University, Tempe AZ, USA

11.10 – 11.25 hrs Coffee break

11.25 – 11.50 hrs Attractive rivals may undermine the expectation of career advancement – Pilar Gonzalez-Navarro, Universidad de Valencia, Valencia, Spain

11.50 – 12.15 hrs How the mind builds evolutionarily new concepts - Michael Barlev, Arizona State University, Tempe AZ, USA

12.15 – 12.40 hrs Fundamental motives, political leaning and out-group bias – Laura Dane, Douglas College New Westminster Campus, New Westminster BC, Canada

12.40 – 13.00 hrs General discussion

13.00 hrs - 15.00 hrs Lunch and spare time on your own

Session 4 Stereotypes and discrimination

15.00 – 15.35 hrs Evolution and the social psychology of stereotyping, prejudice, and discrimination – Steve Neuberg, Arizona State University, Tempe AZ, USA

15.35 – 16.10 hrs The psychological and behavioral effects of height – Abraham Buunk, University of Groningen, Groningen, The Netherlands

16.10 – 16.25 hrs Tea break

16.25 – 17.00 hrs Effects of environment and Life History Strategies (LHS) on adaptive fitness among African Americans - Rick Gibbons and Meg Gerrard, University of Connecticut, Storrs CT, USA

17.00 – 17.35 hrs Integrating social psychology, evolutionary psychology, and law to explore stereotypes of criminality and recidivism - Keelah E. G. Williams, Hamilton College, Clinton NY, USA

20.00 hrs Paella dinner and live Cuban music by Maneco & Aytana in:

Finca Marjuan, Calle del Lago Balaton 30, 03730 Javea

Tel. (0034)626124056 and 0031620401124 (also on Whatsapp)

Going on foot is no option, but we have enough cars to accommodate all participants.